List Grade	II* & Scheduled Ancient Monument
Conservation Area	No
Description	Former chapel, now outbuilding. Early C15 of uncoursed flint rubble with a plaintile roof. Rectangular single-cell plan. Most window tracery has been lost. Complete trussed rafter roof of uniform scantling with no longitudinal support. The chapel served a Benedictine grange owned by Westminster Abbey, in existence on this site from 1115 to 1538.
Suggested Use	Commercial/ancillary to other buildings on the site.
Condition	Fair. Not on English Heritage Register of Buildings at Risk.
Reason for Risk	One of a group of partly occupied buildings with no agreed future. Forms a group with the Farmhouse and Barn
Owner/Agent	Mr & Mrs May, Potters Tye Farm, Newmans Green, Sudbury, Suffolk CO10 0AD
Current Availability	Not known
Notes	Recent repairs have made the building wind and water tight, but window tracery needs repair or an alternative solution.
